Call to Prayer

Ask • Seek • Knock • Matthew 7:7

Persecuted Church: Philippines - On the island of Mindanao, where Muslim-majority communities dominate the western and southern regions of the island, Islamist groups and the government have engaged in a long-standing conflict over the Islamists' desire to form an independent Muslim state. Groups such as Abu Sayyaf and Maute have pledged allegiance to the self-proclaimed Islamic State (ISIS) to gain financial help and recruit foreign fighters. Islamic extremists routinely threaten Christians and have driven many out of Muslim-majority areas. Many pastors and other believers have been killed. However, a significant number of Christians remain in these areas as a bold witness for Christ.

- Pray for God's peace among Christians living under threat of attack from Islamist rebels.
- Praise God that many Christians have remained in Muslim-dominated Mindanao as bold witnesses for Christ.
- Pray for Bible schools that continue to equip courageous Christians for ministry in Muslim-majority areas.
- Pray that members of Islamist groups like Abu Sayyaf will come to faith in Christ.
- Pray for the families of pastors and other believers who have been killed for the activity of their faith..
