Persecuted Church: Somalia - Most Somalis believe that to be Somali is to be Muslim, so those who come to faith in Christ are accused of rejecting not only their religion but also their nationality. After years of drought and civil war, more Somalis live outside Somalia than within its borders, and Somalis often take their Islamist cultural norms with them wherever they go. Therefore, those who faithfully serve Christ or convert from Islam in Somali communities throughout the world face severe persecution regardless of national laws. Even so, the dispersion of Somali people has also created unique opportunities to reach them with the gospel. Somalis are more reachable and open than ever before, and many have chosen to follow Christ, including some who are willing to reach out to other Somalis at any cost. persecution.com

- More Somalis live outside the country than within its borders. Pray that Somalis everywhere will hear the gospel.
- Pray that many young people in Somalia who become disillusioned with Islam will turn to Christ.
- Pray that Somali Christians grounded in God's Word will plant churches in Somalia and in the Somali Regions.
- Pray that Somalis arrested in Somaliland will stand firm and persevere amid trials, for Christ's glory.
